Amended MLA bylaws: how do I benefit?

More nimble, less bureaucracy

More authority and control for MLA units
Making MLA membership more affordable

Dues remain the same for:

- Individual members ($195)
- First-time members ($130)
- Emeritus ($75)
- Student ($50)
- Affiliate ($120)
- International members-outside North America ($130)

New, lower membership fees for those who need it most:

- HINARI-eligible countries ($25)
- Unemployed ($50)
- Low income dues ($120): maximum salary raised from $35k to $40k

Dues are reduced by $50 when your institution participates in the new institutional member model (at the appropriate tier)

“THE” PLACE FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION

Launching early 2017!
NEW COMMUNITIES GOAL: Striving to benefit you!

STRATEGIC GOAL:
Strengthen MLA’s member communities (Sections and SIGs) by analyzing and recommending changes in the areas of:
1. community architecture and roles
2. member leadership development
3. content and education
4. marketing

WE WILL BE SUCCESSFUL IF WE…
• increase the relevance, effectiveness and value of MLA Sections and SIGs to members;
• empower MLA members at the grassroots level;
• better support MLA programs;
• maximize the value, use and visibility of member content;
• reduce administrative complexity; and
• attract more members.
YOUR INVOLVEMENT IS ESSENTIAL!
